1. An infantry NCO school is located in the former artillery barracks of Inowroclaw where the 59th Artillery Regiment was at one time stationed.
2. A parade ground is located about nine kilometers from Inowroclaw in the neighborhood of the Flawinek and Matwy (N52-46, E18-15) villages and of the Gniewkowo woods (N52-53, E18-26). It is used as an exercise ground by units stationed in Inowroclaw and other localities.
3. Two airfields are in the immediate vicinity of Inowroclaw. The larger airfield is near Latkowo (N52-50, E18-18), and was built by the Germans in World War II. The Polish Air Force is accommodated in barracks on the airfield. About 70 aircraft are always on the field, mostly of the Soviet YAK type. There are also a few two-engine training aircraft of Soviet origin. Repair and adaptation of the large air raid shelters was begun in the summer of 1954. One shelter is in the western part of Inowroclaw, and one shelter is in the southeastern part of the town near the water tower in ulica Staro-Poznanska. Both shelters date back to World War II.
